There will be a social dinner on May 23, 6:30 p.m. at the Sundancer Grill, 16410 Stewart Road. Please RSVP to Randy Adams at flyadamsair@att.net, ONLY if attending so we can get a good headcount.

Last time we had a good group so we look forward to seeing everyone there!

The first Lakeway Airpark Annual Fish Fry was a rousing success!! We raised enough to send seven (7) veterans to Washington, D.C. with Honor Flight Austin.

We couldn't have done it without the support of the community, our volunteers and participants.

Thanks to all of our volunteers - Jesse and Maureen Beckett, Jeff and Katie Brinkman, Dan Brinkman, Treon San Marco, Adam Blake, Angie Thielemans and Jeff Klaas, Emery Beckett, Mackey Beckett, Mike Collier, Phil and Jean Thompson, Bill Molloy, Keith and Sue Durio, Bill and Marsha Kulpa, Cory Bull, Lani Durio, Jenna Durio, Shawn Mack, Phil Grgurich, Randy Adams, Erik Mulloy, Sue Knolle, Tommy and Amy Harper, and Loren Brown. Everyone jumped in and gave 100% in all areas - organization, food prep and service, logo design, t-shirt production and sales, parking cars and airplanes, making table decorations, taking photos, etc. etc.

My apologies if I missed any one of our great Airpark volunteers as there were many others who offered their services in any way needed.

Thank you to the Commemorative Air Force, CenTex Wing out of San Marcos for bringing their vintage Bell 47 "Mash" helicopter. Thanks to Ron Bohling, and pilot, Roger Sharp, for taking people on rides over Lakeway and Lake Travis. Skotz Ingram and his wife were a hit in their vintage T-6 Texan. Thank you for coming by for the day.
